Enclosure No.

Sir

I have the honour to inform you that I consider it absolutely necessary that the Police staff employed here should be provided with quarters. I have been urging the matter for the last two months but nothing more has been done than that some officers have come here and gone. At present the 6

Constables are very frequently absent on the idea that they went to Bangalore for meals Unless the constables are present at any moment there and available for any case the plague duties cannot be satisfactorily Carried out
